

New Generation Private School

English Teacher (KS3), Bahrain

Summary

New Generation Private School is currently looking for UK qualified English Teachers. August starts are welcome to apply.

This centrally based school has recently undergone a change of ownership and is now looking to drive forward with highly motivated and passionate British teaching staff who want to experience life in Bahrain. With a British Principal at the helm, these are ideal opportunities for individuals looking for a new overseas role.

Minimum criteria to apply

Related BA + PGCE

Relevant teaching experience

Experience from an international school is an advantage

Experience of using the UK curriculum is essential

Excellent knowledge of subject content and pedagogy

High expectations and aspirations for all children

The ability to use digital applications to enhance teaching and learning

Committed to the overall development of young people

Package

Tax free basic salary (depending on experience)

Housing / allowance (your choice)

Annual return airfare

Medical insurance

Other Details

We will need 2 references plus a copy of your recent DBS / police clearance to process your application.

Start date August 1, 2018